Supporting Music Education in Wyoming

The Wyoming Music Educators Association is a voluntary non-profit organization representing all phases of music education in Wyoming schools, colleges, private studios and the University of Wyoming. Active WMEA membership is open to all persons engaged in music teaching or other work in the field of music education.

Three digital publications of the Windsong are provided to all WMEA members. All issues are available on our website in a format suitable for online reading or printable download. All links and web addresses are active. The Fall Windsong is also provided to all non-member music educators in Wyoming. Our association journal includes a focus content of features and articles, officer reports, and general information as well as association and industry advertising. Support Music Education in Wyoming by placing an ad in the WMEA journal!
